OBITUARIES.

JAMES N. FULLER.

James N. Fuller, one of the most prominent residents of Passaic, N. J., for the last thirty years, died Sunday at Cocca. Fig., aged 68. He retired several years ago as New York manager of the Southern Railway Company. He was a thirty-third degree Scottish Rite Mason and one of the leading members of the Masonic order in New Jersey. He was past master of Passaic Lodge, No. 67. F. and A. M.; member of Washington Commandery, Knights Templar, and prominent in civic, church and charlitable circles. Largely through his efforts the Masons secured a temple in Passaic, one of the finest in the State. His wife, Mrs. Anna Ayorigg Fuller, daughter of the late Dr. Henjamin B. Ayerigg, second Mayor and one of Passaic's most prominent citizens, died eighteen months ago. Two brothers, Charles and William, survive.

THE TRUTH About the Milk Fight

The public doesn't understand the facts about the milk fight. You have seen one side in the newspapers. It is now our duty to make some plain statements in order to clear the air and have you understand what we are fighting for, and whom we are fighting.

What We Are Fighting For

We are fighting for the consumer's rights as well as our own.

We insist that the consumers of New York shall always have an adequate supply of good milk-and to accomplish this we must receive at least the cost of production for the milk we sell to the dealers. If the dairy farmers are unable to get at least cost of production for milk, they will be able to produce very little milk for you in the near future. Like any business men they will simply close up shop, that is, they will have to sell or kill their cows. That, of course, means a very high price for milk later because the supply will fall so far short of the

The average dairy farmer makes no profit. He simply receives farm wages for the time which he, his help and his wife and children spend in producing milk. Formerly nothing was figured in for the labor of the wife and children.

Whom We Are Fighting

The Dairymen's League is highling those milk dealers in New York—the middle men, whose organization is known as the Milk Conference Board.

We are fighting them because they refuse to buy our milk and sell it to you. We have offered to sell this milk at cost to these middle men. They say if we de not sell below cost they will not buy our milk. Their action is withholding milk from babies and children, from hospitals, sick, soldiers, from your home and your neighbors.

Do Not Be Percived

You may believe that these dealers are fighting the Dairymen's League in order to sell milk to you at a lower price. It is our conviction based on experience of a great many years that these middle men have adopted a selfish and short sighted policy of trying to break up the Dairymen's League of 62,000 dairy farmers, who own 700,000 cows. If they can accomplish this they believe they can buy milk at less than cost as they did for a great many years in the past. But the dairy farmer of today will not sell his product at less than cost because now he knows what the cost is, and in the past he did not. He will go out of business

if forced to, and all will suffer, including the dealers themselves. Many Wills Deplers Are Fair

There are over one hundred independent milk dealers cutside of the Milk Conference Board who are paying us cost-of-production prices and are glad to do it. Practically every Up-State dealer is paying the farmers' prices, so that the only milk shortage is here in New York, where many of the largest retailers are asking the citizens to go without their full supply of miles because the dealers are unwilling to pay the cost-of-production price for milk and ard endeavoring to fix their own prices as they have done for scores of years before the Dairymen's League was ## organized to sell the dairy farmers' milk. Three Propositions by the Dairymen's League

PROPOSITION No. 1-In order that the PUBLIC may judge, we are willing to submit our cost of production, $4.01 per hundred for three per cent, milk in the one hundred fifty mile zone, to the following gentlemen, who have made the cost of milk production a careful study for a number of years last past, to-wit:

Prof. Geo. F. Warren, State College of Agriculture, Ithaca, N. Y.; Prof. F. A. Pearson, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois; Prof. Oscar Erf, State College of Agriculture, Columbus, Ohio; Prof. Fred Rasmussen, Pennsylvania State College, State College, Pa.: Prof. App. New Brunswick Experiment Station, New Brunswick, N. J.; Prof. Mussey, Stores Agriculture College, Conn. We also offer to bring to New York these gentlemen at our expense. This offer has been communicated to the District Attorney. PROPOSITION No. 2 The Hopewell Junction Branch of the Dairymen's League offers free to the Board of Health of New York to the Nathan Straus Laboratories. We expect other branches to make similar offers. PROPOSITION No. 3 We are willing to co-operate in any practical plan which will bring milk from farm to consumer at the for use in hospitals, or among the poor of the city, from seventy-five to one hundred cans of pasteurized milk daily provided cans are furnished and freight paid. This offer has been turned over lowest possible cost to the consumer. We want the citizens of New York to understand the milk situation and we are anxious to take it out of politics, to rescue it from short-sicht of and greedy middle men, and to safe-guard the interests of the farmers and the consumers which are one and the same.

Our books and methods are open to the public. We selicit correspondence or interviews from citizens or organizations who in good faith wish to learn the
